IMMENSE REVENUE FRAUDS.

WASHINGTON, June 18. One of the largest seizures made under the Internal Revenue Laws, and probably the largest of the class in the United States, has just been effected in United States, has just been effected in Baltimore. A system of organized fraud has, for many months, been practiced by the Ullmans, who own the largest distillery in this country, and the frauds they have committed, under the knowledge and cowardice of officers of the Revenue Bureau, will amount it is thought, to several thousand dollars. A knowledge of the frauds has only recantly come to Commissioner Delano. recently come to Commissioner Delano.
Officers sent to the distillery to investigate into affairs, report that the facilities for fraud were the most perfect they had ever known. It was discovered that the owners had violated every section of the revenue laws pertaining to the manufacture of spirits, and that the frauds extended back for a long period. The Ulimans did a very extensive and profitable business in the compounding of liquors, making old whisky out of new, preparing peach brandy, &c.
The establishment in all its parts is represented to be the most complete in the country. The buildings alone are valued at a hundred thousand dollars. The evidence is so perfect that it will be impossible for the owners to evade
